IBTF POLICIES & PROCEDURES

INTRODUCTION

The International Baton Twirling Federation is a partnership of twirling organisations WBTF & WFNBT, fused together by their common interest to see baton twirling flourish throughout the world. It is essential to the sport of baton twirling to promote an environment that allows everyone who participates to have as positive an experience as possible.

The observance of the principles set forth is essential to the IBTF and its objectives, in particular to protect and improve the sport of baton twirling and to promote it globally, preventing any methods or practices which might harm the integrity of competitions.

To better serve those who participate in baton twirling, the Code of Conduct applies to all members of IBTF, namely, athletes, coaches, judges, administrators, contest directors and executive board members of National Associations. This Code offers general principles to guide the conduct of all IBTF members in situations that have ethical implications.

1. GENERAL POLICY & PROCEDURES

1.1 STATEMENT OF ETHICAL CONDUCT

The IBTF expects all members to maintain the highest standards of ethical conduct. That commitment upholds the reputation of IBTF, both locally and globally, and encourages compliance with applicable laws and regulations. Therefore, members have the responsibility to:

- follow guidelines established by the IBTF.
- Prevent or avoid unreasonable physical or emotional risk to members
- Avoid engaging in conduct toward another member that is abusive, or likely to be perceived as abusive.
- Avoid any attempt to intimidate, embarrass, or improperly influence a member responsible for judging or administering a competition.

1.2 RESPECT FOR GOVERNANCE

Respect for governance is the expectation that members of IBTF will act in compliance with the laws, regulations and policies that are in effect and govern behavior in the IBTF and the conduct of IBTF business.

Whether at an IBTF event or conducting IBTF business, members of the administration are expected to comply with all local and relevant country laws. When members of the administration are in another country on IBTF business, they are expected to act in compliance with all relevant laws.

A respect for governance guides one's own behavior. It is essential for a community and for a positive environment. It is the responsibility of everyone not to tolerate disregard for, and noncompliance with, laws, regulations and policies. Members are encouraged to seek clarifications about possible noncompliance and to report actual and possible violations of laws, regulations and policies.

1.3 RESPECT FOR OTHERS

Respect for others is a central principal that governs interactions between members of the IBTF. Primary expectations are to act with civility and to refrain from abuse of power. Respect for others is expected in athlete to athlete relationships, coach and athlete relationships, with adjudicative officials and between administrative members.

Respect should be present in verbal and written communications. Respect should be shown at meetings, on the telephone and in electronic email exchanges.

People have the right to disagree, even strongly disagree; however, there is also a responsibility to be civil and to maintain respect even while disagreeing. Problems, mistakes, and miscommunications can all arise from time to time in the course of conducting business, and could even call for the escalation of seriousness of attention to a situation. Again, there still remains the expectation of respect and civility in interactions.

Respect for others includes a respect for those who are different from you. A positive working environment where everyone can receive respect and do their best work requires a respect and tolerance for difference and diversity.

1.4 ZERO TOLERANCE OF DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

Any IBTF activity or event should be open to any member properly qualified under the rules of that activity or event. There shall be no restriction of the ability for a member to qualify for or participate in competition because of a member's or prospective member's association with a particular organization or individual and there shall be no discrimination as a result of race, ethnicity, origin, skin color, nationality, religion, age, gender, language, physical appearance, sexual orientation, physical disability, or political opinion, or engagement in any kind of verbal or physical harassment based on any of the above-mentioned or any other criteria.

There shall be no restriction or discrimination in the provision of resources or opportunities to any member or prospective member as a result of race, ethnicity, origin, skin color, nationality, religion, age, gender, language, physical appearance, sexual orientation, physical disability, or political opinion, or engagement in any kind of verbal or physical harassment based on any of the above-mentioned or any other criteria.

1.5 SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Members of the IBTF are expected to promote a safe environment for athletes, coaches, officials, volunteers and staff in all disciplines and events, including an environment free from sexual misconduct. Members may not:

- Solicit or engage in sexual relations with any minor.
- Make unwelcome advances, requests for sexual favors or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature where such conduct creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.

Coaches, judges, or other professional members must avoid sexual relationships with athletes except where the capacity and quality of the athletes consent to enter that relationship is beyond question.

1.6 FAIR PLAY

Fair play guides us at all times in all our actions and decisions. Members must not engage in behavior that is so disorderly or inappropriate as to interfere with the orderly conduct of the activity, or other members' participation in, or the enjoyment of the activity or event.

1.7 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

We act always in the best interest of IBTF and its objectives. It is the personal responsibility of each member to avoid any conflict of interest.

1.8 TRANSPARENCY AND COMPLIANCE

We seek transparency and strive to maintain a good compliance culture with checks and balances.

1.9 RESPECT FOR INFORMATION

Each Member Country's Executive Board, by the nature of their positions and responsibilities, often have access to information that is confidential, sensitive, and/or personal. In addition to adhering to the rules and regulations that governs the proper handling of information, everyone is expected to respect the privacy of others by respecting the information that pertains to others.

People are expected to manage their access to information responsibly and in a manner that respects all of these things. People are also expected to seek clarification and confirmation of information that comes to them, particularly if it seems inconsistent or questionable, so as not to misrepresent a situation or contribute to a misrepresentation or misunderstanding.

1.10 RESPECT FOR PROPERTY

Each Member Country's Executive Board members act as representatives of IBTF property. Property includes physical assets, intellectual property, the IBTF name, and other resources. As a non-profit organization, it is essential to maintain the highest standards of representation for the property and resources entrusted to us. Respect for property therefore entails both the efficient and appropriate use of IBTF assets and resources. Members are expected to do nothing that would jeopardize the IBTF's reputation or standing in the community.

1.11 ANTI-DOPING

The IBTF is strictly against drugs and all doping practices. Members must ensure that the sport is conducted in an environment free of drug or alcohol abuse. Members may not assist or condone any competing athlete's use of a drug banned by the International Olympic Committee, or the IBTF. Athletes may not refuse to submit to properly conducted drug tests administered by any of those organizations. Members may not provide alcohol to, or condone the use of alcohol by, minors; abuse alcohol in the presence of athletes or at IBTF activities or events; or consume alcoholic beverages while a minor.

1.12 ZERO TOLERANCE OF BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION

The IBTF is against all forms of bribery and corruption. No betting or manipulation is allowed and will not be tolerated.

1.13 SOCIAL MEDIA

This policy applies to IBTF members who create or contribute to blogs, wikis, social networks, virtual worlds, or any other kind of social media, whether logged onto Twitter, Yelp, LinkedIn, Wikipedia, MySpace or Facebook pages. Members who participate in social media and/or participate in online commentary must adhere follow these guidelines. Members' use of social media could become a problem if it:

- Interferes with the Member's duties as a representative of IBTF
- Is used to harass or discriminate against others
- Creates a hostile environment
- Does not adhere to existing laws
- Divulges confidential information about the IBTF, it's members, employees, guests; or
- Harms the goodwill and reputation of the IBTF.

As a result, we encourage members to use social media within the following guidelines. If you are uncertain about the appropriateness of a social media posting, check with your country representative.

1.14 PERSONAL SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDELINES

- Do not post any comment or picture involving a member of the IBTF without their express consent.
- If you post any comment about the IBTF or its members, you must clearly and conspicuously state that you are posting in your individual capacity and that "the views posted are yours alone and do not represent the views or opinions of the IBTF".
- Unless given written consent, you may not use the IBTF's logo or any IBTF material in your posts.

Don't forget that you are responsible for what you write or present on social media. - All IBTF policies that regulate member's conduct apply to social media activity including, but not limited to, policies related to illegal harassment, code of conduct, nondiscrimination, and protecting confidential and/or proprietary information, and references.

1.15 PROFESSIONAL SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDELINES

The IBTF maintains social media sites to promote the IBTF, its marketing messages and interests, and to be visible in the community. Along with the guidelines mentioned above the following guidelines should be adhered to while participating on IBTF social media:

- Never represent yourself or the IBTF in a false or misleading way. All statements must be true and not misleading; all claims must be substantiated.
- Be professional.
- Be transparent; use your real name and role with the IBTF.

What is published is widely accessible and will be around for a long time, so consider the content carefully before you click, post, tweet or hit enter.

Violation of this policy may lead to discipline up to and including termination of membership.

1.16 COMPLIANCE

Compliance with this Code depends upon understanding and voluntary compliance, and secondarily upon reinforcement by peers, and when necessary, upon enforcement through disciplinary action. Any member who believes that another member of the IBTF has failed to meet such obligations under this Code is, under all but the most egregious circumstances, encouraged to first address that concern directly to that member. If that action does not result in a satisfactory resolution, the Complainant may file a written complaint with their country representative or IBTF Executive Committee member. That complaint must be signed and state specifically the nature of the alleged misconduct. The complaint will be reviewed by the country representative Directors and/or the Executive Committee.

Upon review of the complaint, the committee may:

- Determine that the complaint does not merit further action.

- Counsel the member who is the subject of the complaint and record both the complaint and the nature of the counseling in the Member's permanent record.
